Latin American Earthquake Engineering Course - Action Plans and Friendship Party -

By Mr. Takashi Yamashita, Head of IISEE Administration Division

Action Plan of Jose from Nicaragua

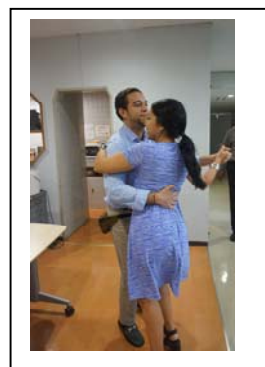

Action Plan of Carmelina and Richar from Peru

Thursday, July 7th was such a day with lots of events for both of us, participants of Latin American Earthquake Engineering Course (Latin American Course) and staff of IISEE.

In the morning, the colloquium started at IISEE and all the participants of Latin American Course presented their action plan. It continued until 15 pm.

After the colloquium, we had a Friendship Party, which was organized by IISEE, in the dining hall of BRI. Although some of the participants were nervous about the presentation, it seemed like that the good food and friendly atmosphere helped them to refresh and relax.

The next day a Closing Ceremony was held in JICA Tsukuba and the course in Japan finished. After that, they flied to El Salvador to take the course there, and they had a Closing Ceremony. From the IISEE, Mr. Kato, IISEE Research Engineer, accompanied the participants to El Salvador and gave lectures for the first week of the course (anterior half), and Mr. Inukai, IISEE Chief Research Engineer for the second week (latter half).
